

Acclaim for From a Distance by Tamera Alexander

Timber Ridge Reflections #1

(Bethany House, June 2008)

- ❖ #20 on ECPA Fiction National Bestseller List (2008)
- ❖ Christian Book Distributors Fiction *National Best Seller List (2008)
- ❖ “This first installment in Alexander’s new historical series is fast paced and emotionally charged, with beautiful descriptions of the landscape.” --Romantic Times
- ❖ “I love reading about women who don’t fit in with society’s ideal, such as women doctors or lawyers...or in this case, a woman photographer, in the 1800s. Author Tamera Alexander most definitely succeeds on this score with From a Distance...The characters...are well written and incredibly believable. The prose is smooth, never flat, and the intrigue will keep the reader turning the pages. Ms. Alexander’s newest offer is well researched and will give her more success...” Penny Goodwin, LoveRomancesandMore.com
- ❖ “From a Distance is another fabulous historical novel from author Tamera Alexander—book one of the Timber Ridge Reflections series from Bethany House. This story is every bit as good as Tamera’s first three award-winning novels, The Fountain Creek Chronicles. Her characters are true-to-life, believable, and the kind of people you’d love to meet...She has become an author I trust to deliver, and I have never been disappointed! Can’t wait to read the next two in the series.” --Jill Eileen Smith, author of Michal—A Novel
- ❖ “...Readers will believe that Tamera Alexander employs a time machine as the audience will feel they have been transported to 1875 Colorado Territory. Provide yourself plenty of time for a one sitter as interruptions will feel annoying. The lead couple is a wonderful pairing as both have issues to deal with to include falling in love and keeping her safe though their interests differ.” Harriet Klausner
- ❖ “I love Tamera Alexander books! She paints scenery with the written word, and makes characters, stories, and insights linger long after the book is read.” Cindy Woodsmall, NYT bestselling author , When the Heart Cries
